Reflections of HOKE COUNTY HIGH

1935-1960

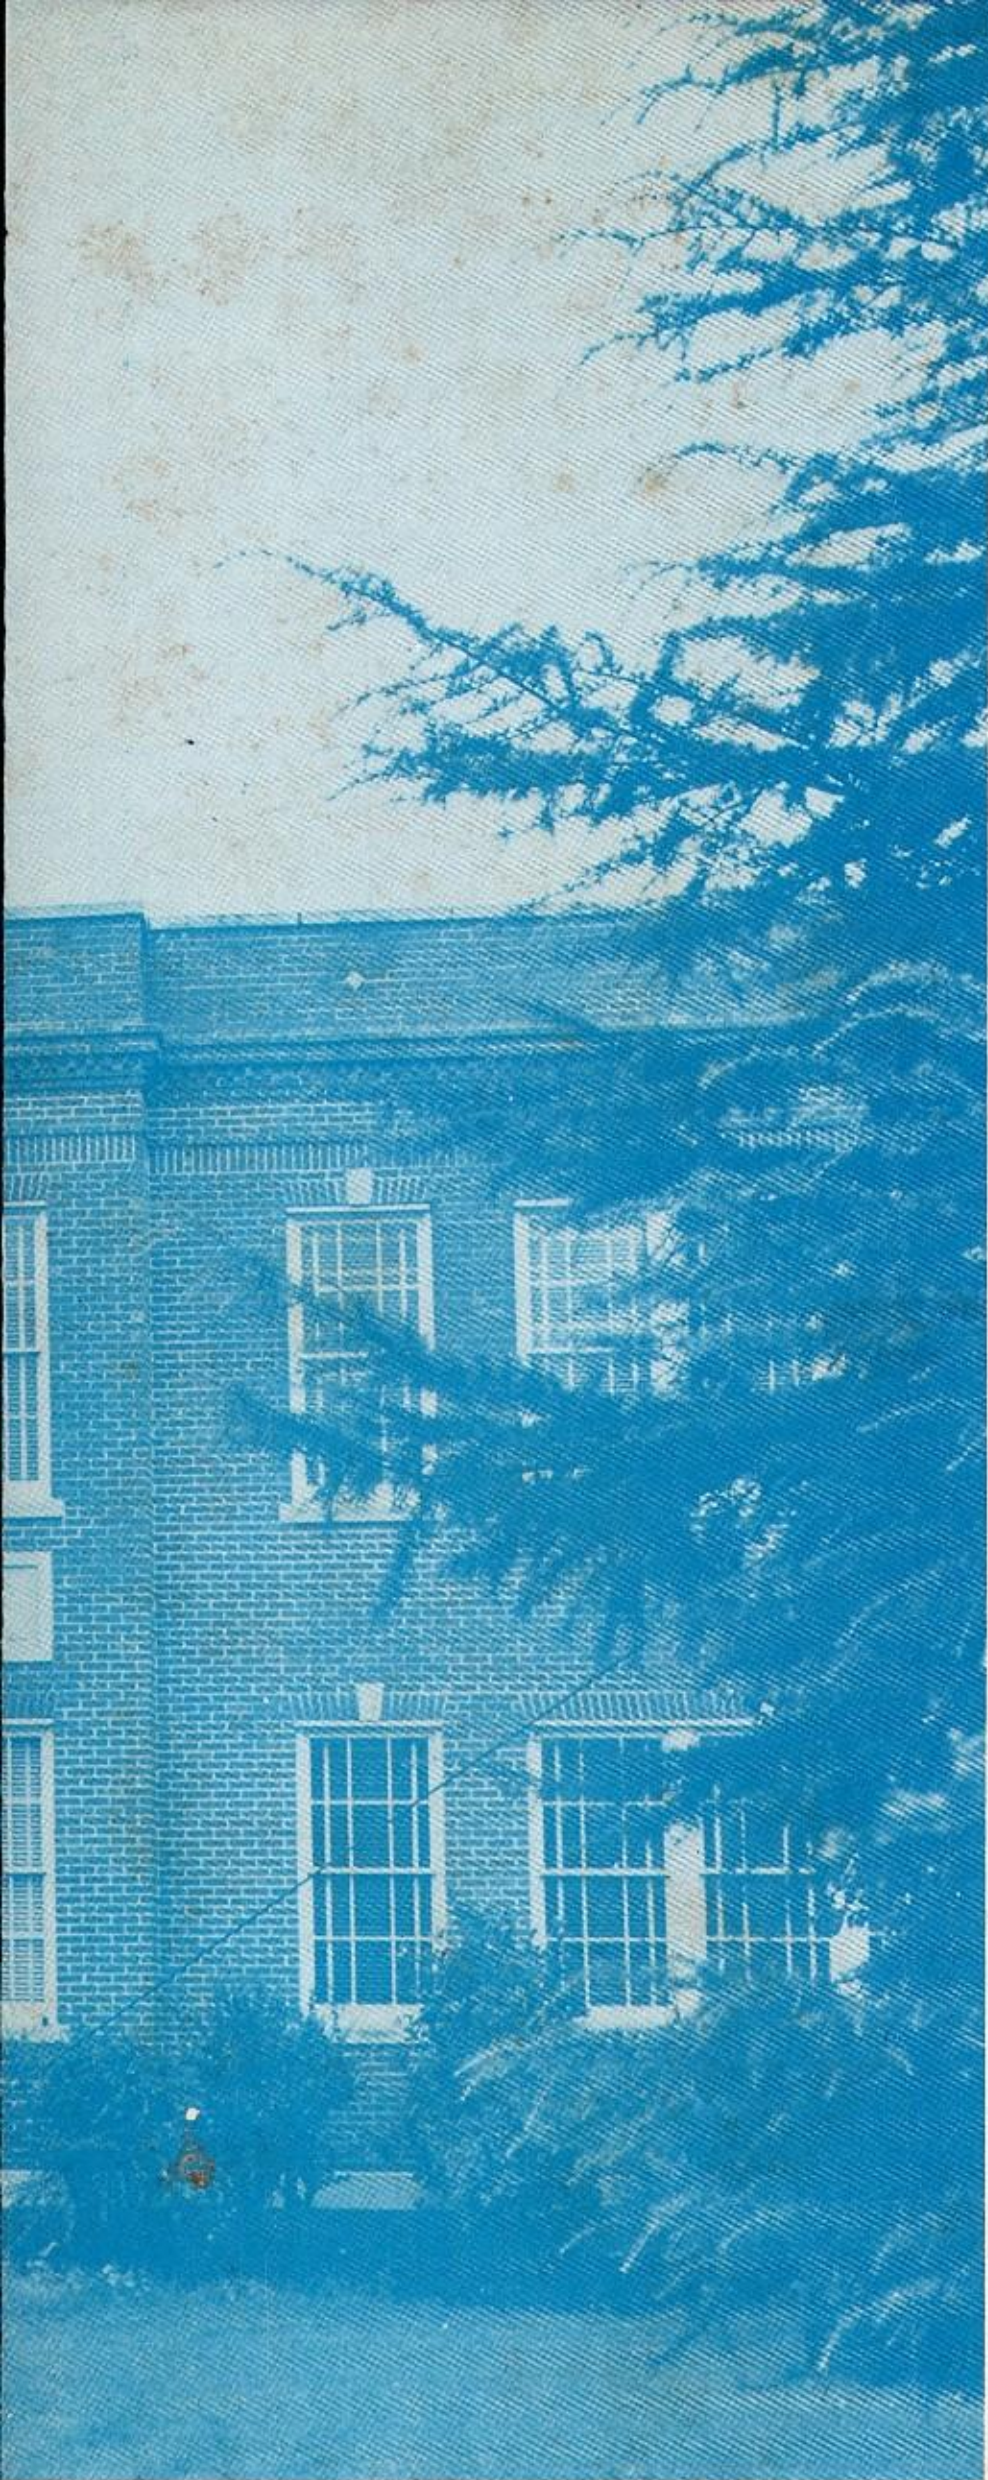

Foreword

For twenty five years (1935-1960) this beautiful building has sheltered Hoke County youth. Through her portals a generation of students have passed seeking and finding knowledge, development of character, and direction for life. Now we look toward the future when succeeding generations will enter and graduate from a more spacious and commodious structure. But this number of the Ekoh honors this our "home", our Alma Mater, "so dear to our hearts."

yielding place to new." Tennyson

Strong iron girders are silhouetted against a September sky --the first evidence of the modern new building which will echo to the sound of gay young voices and hurrying feet when September again makes her appearance on our calendar.

And so we say, "Farewell." But those who have trod these halls will keep enshrined in their hearts this building, this "home" of their school days. We depart with a feeling of nostalgia, but with the hope of a bright future in the spacious new structure that is to be our Alma Mater.

Jack,
It's really been fun going to school
with you these past years.
Don't forget our good old Algebra class. Good luck and best wishes everything you do. Be good!
Rayle Brady

Jack,

I really appreciate those smiles I've been getting lately. They look much better on you than that frown. The only class we had together this year was home-room and we sure didn't see each other much there but we had fun in the hall, and don't forget the night out at the Tactic-Fun and all the ball games oh, and of course the bee (Tiger) I don't know what we're going to do without Ann next year.

I'll just have to say something about you Aqua Velva - "Wew"!!! Harky I'm running out of space. Jack, I hope you have the best of every thing in life with your personality, I know you Love, from a friend,
Love, Patience
